

Edward Tauss

Heart Attack Proves Fatal To CIA Aide

Edward Tauss, 57, an intelligence officer with the Central Intelligence Agency, died Monday after a heart attack in White Sands, N.M., while there in connection with his work. He lived at 850 Spring Hill rd., McLean.

A native of Bayonne, N.J., Mr. Tauss attended Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, then served in the Air Force from February, 1941, to February, 1950, when he was discharged with the rank of major and joined the CIA.

During World War II, he was a military intelligence officer in the Pacific.

Mr. Tauss is survived by his wife, Louise, of the home, and three sons, Richard J. Randolph M. and Brian L.

CPYRGHT